The Governor's Council on Disability is now accepting applications for the 2014 Missouri Youth Leadership Forum, July 20-23, 2014, at the University of Missouri, Columbia. The Missouri Youth Leadership Forum is a unique career leadership-training program for high school students with disabilities, ages 16-21. Youth delegates are selected from their local communities to cultivate leadership, citizenship, and social skills at this four-day summer program. The Missouri Youth Leadership Forum is available to student delegates at NO COST. Delegates are responsible for providing their own transportation to Columbia and back.

Detailed information and the application can be found on the web at <http://disability.mo.gov/gcd/ylf.htm>.

Please share this information with interested individuals.

If you are interested in serving as a staff member or volunteer at the Missouri Youth Leadership Forum, please contact Dawn Evans (dawn.evans@oa.mo.gov or 573-751-2600) for more information and to obtain a volunteer application.
